3. Presentations and/or Proclamations

A. Recognizing Mayor Ed Wolf for 50 Years of Public Service to the City of Wildwood

Mayor Wolf thanked the audience for their attendance and stated that the success of the City of Wildwood was a combination of efforts amongst the citizens, city staff, commissioners, and others. He remarked that there would be no public comment for this meeting and introduced Chris Holley, a representative from the Florida League of Cities. Holley explained the mission of the Florida League of Cities and why public service and leadership are so important to the communities around Florida. He read aloud a resolution drafted by the Florida League of Cities that honored Mayor Wolf's 50 years of service and presented him with the Mayor John Land Years of Service Award. Mayor Wolf thanked Holley for the presentation and award.

Mayor Wolf then introduced Congressional Representative Daniel Webster to speak. Webster congratulated Mayor Wolf on his 50 years of service and presented an American flag to him. He added that the flag had flown over the National Capital, was weather worthy, and made in America. Mayor Wolf expressed his appreciation to everyone that had shown up and recognized several members of his family that were in attendance. City Manager McHugh spoke on behalf of staff, stating how proud the staff was to work under his steadfast leadership for the last 50 years. He recognized Mayor Wolf's overwhelming support for the City of Wildwood and its citizens. Mayor Wolf expressed his thanks to McHugh and acknowledged the city staff and citizens of Wildwood.
